Celebrating 45 years
Service to the Agricultural
Machinery Industry

Welcome to Murray Machinery

Founded near Aberdeen in 1979, Murray Machinery is a trusted UK manufacturer specialising in high-quality material handling attachments and equipment. Our products are designed to integrate seamlessly with a wide range of machinery, including telescopic handlers, tractors, loaders, forklifts, excavators, loading shovels, and skid steers.

With over 45 years of industry experience, we bring proven expertise to the design and development of every product in our range. Customer feedback plays a vital role in shaping our innovations, ensuring we continue to meet the evolving demands of agriculture and other industries. While we are committed to continuous improvement, several of our attachments have stood the test of time—remaining largely unchanged thanks to their exceptional reliability and performance.

■ Delivering Quality Agricultural Machinery for Over 45 Years

Explore our range of farming and agricultural attachments, from muck forks and bale handlers to buckets and more. Each product is built for reliability, efficiency, and strong performance in demanding conditions.

■ Forestry Equipment You Can Rely On

Murray Machinery offers a range of forestry implements, including log grabs, buckets, and pallet forks, all built for strength, control, and reliable performance in demanding conditions.

■ Construction Attachments Built to Last

We offer a range of well-designed, robust machines and implements for the construction industry, including gravel road graders, access platforms, and a variety of buckets.

■ Engineering Equipment to Keep Your Yard Running Smoothly and Safely

Our range of attachments—including pipe stabilising clamps, pallet forks, and access platforms—helps you carry out engineering tasks safely, efficiently, and with confidence.

■ Waste Handling Attachments for Efficient Operations

At Murray Machinery, we offer attachments for efficient waste handling, including wrapped bale handlers and waste buckets and grabs for telehandlers, loading shovels, and excavators.

■ Bespoke Machines for the Renewable Energy Sector

At Murray Machinery, we manufacture equipment for the rapidly growing renewable energy sector, including specialist products such as our ejector bucket for biomass boiler applications.

■ Municipal Attachments Designed for Public Services

In our extensive product range, we offer a variety of solutions suitable for municipal applications, including gravel road graders, access platforms, snow blades, and snow ploughs.
